

MISS BILLIE BURKE THINKS IT IS BETTER TO LIE A LITTLE JUST FOR KINDNESS' SAKE

WE LIE TO OUR ENEMIES
OCCASIONALLY

TO OUR FRIENDS OFTEN

TO THOSE WE LOVE
MOST OF THE
TIME

AND TO OUR SELVES ALL
OF THE TIME

A very interesting letter has come to my desk in which the young woman declares she would never love any man who told her the "teeniest, weeniest untruth."

We are told that there has lived one man that never told a lie.

What an uninteresting man the lamented George Washington must have been, if this is really true.

No wonder that many girls to
